

He's Keeping His Church

Femi Adedoyin

I had a dream last night. I heard a scripture quoted by a voice Ephesians 3:20. I got up and read it.

Ephesians 3:20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think according to the power that works in us.

I've known this verse off head for many years. It's one of my favorite verses. I have used it many times when praying for others as well as myself. But today I believe God is showing me this verse in its original context. It's not about me or just anyone else. It's about the church. There is no one in the center of the gospel but God. This is about the exceeding work of God in his church. No one can stop what God is doing in the church. Nor beast, nor man, nor the whole world can stand the power of the move of God in the church. No flesh or government can stop the church. God does not need help from anyone, neither system nor political parties to accomplish his purpose. Many had risen against the gospel in years past but only help in multiplying the church. The gospel is not about you and I. The gospel is the good news and not just any news. It's God centered news.

Mark 1:14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee preaching the GOSPEL of the KINGDOM of GOD. It's the good news of God. Gospel is about the creation of God, the fall from God, redemption to God and the consummation through God.

The gospel is about how man is made right with God. I'm just so hopeful and encouraged of this dream that I had. As I ponder on this scripture and noticed that God is saying the church had survived all kinds of persecution and abuse for thousands of years. God is keeping his church and the gates of hell hasn't ever prevailed against it. What God has done and continued to do in his church will sustain us till he comes again.

Psalms 2:2-4 The kings of the earth set themselves and the rulers take counsel together against the LORD and against his anointed saying let us break their hand asunder and cast away their cords from us. He that sits in the heavens shall laugh the Lord shall have them in derision.

It's laughable to think the church needs some help to survive from any political party and equally laughable to think some mortal man or entity can stop the church of God. It is extremely ludicrous to think so.

Ephesians 3:21 Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages world without end. Amen.

We are truly more than conquerors. We shall live forever. Victory in God.
